Open an internet browser and type in the HTSB website: hawaiiteacherstandardsboard.org

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL hawaiiteacherstandardsboard.org in the address bar. The website header features the State of Hawai'i logo and the text "Hawai'i Teacher Standards Board". A green button labeled "Create an Account / Log In" is positioned in the top right corner. Below the header is a navigation menu with links for "HTSB Home", "Licensing and Permits", "Standards", "Hawaii Preparation Programs", "About Us", "Professional Fitness", "Contact Us", "FAQs", and "Resources". A message at the top of the main content area states "You have been logged out." Below this is a section titled "What Are You Here To Do?" with three main options: "Apply / Renew Teaching License" (with a sub-link for "License / Permit Information"), "Update My Information" (with a sub-link for "Update My Profile"), and "Get Help" (with sub-links for "FAQs" and "Contact HTSB"). At the bottom left, there is a "Public License Search" form with fields for "Last Name" and "First Name", a "Search" button, and a note: "The validity and status of a Hawaii license, permit, or certificate can be verified using this public search." At the bottom right, there is a "Recent HTSB Announcements" section with a link to "Professional Learning Opportunity: Creating Educator Communities of Care in Hawaii" and a brief description of HEA workshops.

Log into your account at the top right-hand corner.
